Elba superintendent happy to report ACT scores show upward trend in all areas

by Linda Hodge, Editor

In this week of Thanksgiving, superintendent Chris Moseley notes his thankfulness for the hard work being demonstrated by teachers and students together at Elba City Schools.

Recently, Moseley received a report that qualified his reason to be so thankful, and he said the proof is showing in the numbers.

The ACT is the main test that colleges look at when considering admittance of prospective students. In the report received by Moseley for this year's senior class at Elba, which took the ACT as juniors the numbers only went up.

"Our students received the best score overall composite that had been earned in five years," Moseley said. "But, the students not only went up with overall composite, their numbers were up in every category."

The superintendent said this clearly shows ACT scores are improving for Elba City Schools' students, and it can be accredited to the teachers and students for committing to doing what is needed to generate the good results.

Moseley said the students had the best score in five years for English, Math and Overall Composite. He said they also had the best score in four years for Reading, and the best score in three years for Science.

"We were only 1.8 points from the state average in overall composite," said Moseley. "In the ACT world that is a very small difference."

Moseley said when he entered the Elba School

System as high school principal, before becoming superintendent, he felt the students were not taking the ACT as serious as they probably should have been at the time. However, he said the administration and faculty put an emphasis back on what needed to be done, and the students are responding to that.

Students are able to take the ACT for free one time during a school day when they are juniors, and Moseley said help from parents in stressing the importance of taking that free test is crucial to allow the school to help see where students are and where they need help.

"When I got to Elba probably 95 percent of the students did not take the ACT until the free one as juniors," he said. "Now, we are starting to see a trend of students taking it as early as their 9th or even 8th grade in school."

Moseley said a lot of people do not realize that the ACT can be taken up to 10 times, if needed. He said by students taking it earlier, the school system can look at the results and see where they need to work to help the students improve.

"The longer the student waits to take the ACT, the less time we have to help them," Moseley said. "Here at Elba, we have a great faculty that is committed to helping their students do the best they can to succeed. If we know the needs of the students for the ACT, we have the ability and staff ready and willing to help."

He said that already is showing in the numbers as indicated by the upward trend with scores for this year's senior class.

SATURDAY MORNING WRECK SENDS ONE TO HOSPITAL... Local emergency personnel responded Saturday morning, Nov. 17, to the scene of a two-vehicle wreck at the intersection of U.S. Highway 84 and Alabama Highway 141 in the Curtis community. Upon arrival on scene responders found a 2013 Nissan Sentra, driven by Caitlin Bradshaw of Elba had been struck by a 2005 Chevrolet Aveo LS, driven by Deborah Ford, also of Elba. Officials on scene said it appeared the Sentra was traveling west on Hwy. 84 when the Aveo attempted to cross the intersection, which resulted in the collision. The photo above shows the damage to the Aveo. Bradshaw was transported by ambulance to Mizell Hospital in Opp, Ala. to receive treatment for injuries sustained in the accident. Alabama State Troopers investigated the accident.

Girl Scouts of Southern Alabama (GSSA) hosted its grand re-opening of Camp Humming Hills in Elba during the 2018 Adventure Blast Event held earlier this month.

The camp now features a brand new zip line and archery range. Hundreds of local Girl Scouts came and zipped, shot, and hiked their way through the beautiful camp. A few girls even camped out the night before on site and learned how to build a campfire and make homemade ice cream using tin cans.

"We even made a game out of kicking the tin can around to make the ice cream," says Girl Scout Junior Ariel M. "My favorite part of the weekend though was going on the zip line! At first, I was scared to be up so high, but I'm glad I did it and conquered that fear because it was so much fun!"

GSSA is incredibly thankful for Wiregrass RC&D and Wiregrass United Way for making it all possible. Wiregrass RC&D's grant funded the archery equipment for the new archery range, and Wiregrass United Way's grant funded a new cabin and zip line course.

"This camp allows girls to grow in confidence as they face and overcome challenges, connect with nature, and discover passions through the power of the great outdoors," says GSSA CEO Karlyn Edmonds.

A few fun facts about Camp Humming Hills: It sits at the highest point in Coffee County, is 267 acres with two ponds, and has a hidden lake that was hand dug by the Civilian Conservation Corporation in 1903. Humming Hills is also a girl-friendly camp that gives Girl Scouts the opportunity to take the lead and let their inner G.I.R.L. (go-getter, innovator, risk-taker, leader) potential shine.

"Tact is the knack of making a point without making an enemy." — Isaac Newton

A retired 30-year veteran FBI agent with 15 years experience on a SWAT team spoke out last week against arming untrained civilians to combat and neutralize mass shootings in schools, churches, nightclubs, concerts, etc. His position is that it would cause further loss of innocent lives with civilians firing guns in densely crowded, chaotic venues. He further added he did not believe that amateurs could be trained to the level needed for safe defense of these assembled people. Our Birmingham native expert advocates that law enforcement must react quickly and end the situation. None of his comments are new stuff. At some meeting we were in a year or so ago with experts in this field, those attending heard of the above dangers plus having uniformed law enforcement enter the active shooter scene, see a civilian step around the corner with a drawn weapon and in the confusion immediately start shooting, thinking that the armed civilian is one of the bad guys. End results are more innocent people wounded — or worse killed. This has been our argument every time the arming of patrolling church members, school teachers, etc., is mentioned. We still hold those opinions . . . maybe even stronger.

Last week the United States "celebrated" Recycle Day. Well, officially it was celebrated but actually the majority of Americans went about business as usual with many still tossing things out the car window. We see so much potential recyclable material go into the trash cans and on the sidewalks every day that we could almost cry out "S-T-O-P that right now"!! But then our cutting remark (under our breath) about that is, "Oh, we forgot . . . you are a cut above such trivia stuff."

Thursday is the annual Thanksgiving Day in the United States, a time we should stop and be thankful for what we have. It may be a lot, or just a chair to sit in and some leftovers from yesterday, but even that is more than much of the world has to enjoy. Each of us has our ups and downs and should enjoy the ups while remembering and cherishing them during those times when life hits those stumbling blocks that are in everyone's life.

Our Elba City Council article last week created a lot of questions about the proposed new recreation facility...questions that our office can't answer. Frankly there is a lot about the proposal that can't be answered by anyone at this time. There is more detail that the principals in this venture could tell anyone asking, but they would probably qualify every statement with something about "if". They have a long way to go before this project becomes a reality. Just cross your fingers and wish them luck! Oh, and get ready for a ride on their brand new zipline.

Several editorial writers across Alabama are debating the ability to vote a straight ticket in this state. Many states have removed that option, but it is still possible in our home state. We don't consider it stupid for someone to vote the straight ticket even though we don't do it and frankly never have. Even back in the days when Alabama was all Democrat our ballot was marked for the candidate . . . or in some cases just skipped.

May the spirit of the season be with you all year long. May you be blessed with peace and joy. Be safe.

~ A change of heart changes everything ~ (based on a true story)

Editorial by R.A. Mathews

A change of heart changes everything. Jane and Anne discovered this one cold, rainy Thanksgiving eve.

Ideally, Thanksgiving is the time we thank God for all our blessings. Even so, holiday stress can be overwhelming—coordinating everyone's schedules, shopping for the big feast, relatives who don't always get along, and then preparing the meal.

Jane and Anne didn't know each other before that Wednesday night, but one unforgettable incident changed them forever.

Both women had left work early, certain they'd beat the grocery store insanity. The parking lot was completely full as each arrived. The women were forced to park a block away, down opposite side streets. They hiked back in the wet cold, grumbling along with everyone else making the same trek.

Then the store was sheer madness—Anne grabbed the last of the celery, snagging two bags.

"No more celery?" The woman behind her panicked. "How can I make dressing without celery?"

"I know, right?" Anne hurried past her.

Across the store, Jane grabbed the remaining boxes of butter.

Shoppers nearby shrieked. "The butter is gone?"

Jane nodded. "It's awful!"

Exhausted, both Anne and Jane finally hurried from opposite sides of the store to the check-out lines. Each stopped abruptly, seeing the lines backed down into the grocery aisles.

Anne moved into the second lane groaning. Jane entered lane four, angrily eyeing the closed number three check-out.

"Seriously," Jane said loudly.

"We need help up here!" Anne shouted.

A manager finally appeared, opening lane three. "Take the next person."

Anne raced from her lane as Jane cut out of hers, both banging their carts head on, jamming the entrance to the lane.

"I was here first," Jane said. That was true. Anne had just barely blocked her.

"Remember who called for the manager?" Anne said.

Both women shoved their buggies forward again and again, making an awful clanging sound, trying to force the other aside.

"Move!" Anne said.

"I was first!" Jane said. The arguing got louder, each refusing to back down.

A young woman with a baby on her hip left her shopping cart and stepped between them.

"What?" both women said, giving their carts an extra shove.

"It's Thanksgiving," she said.

The two glared at her, boiling mad. Even so, the young woman stood her ground. She quietly spoke one sentence to them.

Oh, yes. Each tried to respond, but that sentence had struck hard. The two women stopped and stood still.

Jane backed up first.

HEART

"So—sorry," she said, barely able to speak, choking on heavy emotion.

Anne also backed away. "Me, too."

Jane silently turned her buggy, pushing it to the rear of the store. Anne did the same, tears glazing her eyes.

Jane handed the butter away. Anne did the same with her celery.

Each entered the rear of the two longest lines and waited patiently, both wiping away tears, silently grieving.

"What happened?" one woman after another whispered to each other.

"What did the young mother say?"

Gradually the words made their way back through the lines. The young woman had reminded the two of something vastly important to Christians. Yet it's forgotten every day. Every day. All day long. Forgotten.

We fight to get our way, insist on being treated fairly, rail after experiencing injustice—whether prejudice or insult. We often seek revenge, evening the score for a wrong done.

What did the young mother say that made its way to every person in the store that cold, rainy November eve?

Six words.

She said, "Remember what Jesus did for you."

Bow your head with me and recall our Lord's sacrifice. Jesus was viciously beaten, the flesh torn from His skin. Our Lord fell, unable to bear the weight of His cross. Stakes were driven into His precious hands and feet. His side pierced.

Recall the cold-hearted jeering. "He saved others, let him save himself."

This Thanksgiving, praise God for His greatest gift.

Jesus.

Remember what our Lord did for you. Every day—remember. Every time you want your way, feel unfairly treated, suffer insult or prejudice—remember.

It will change your heart. And a change of heart changes everything.

ADPH recommends flu shots for those 6 months of age and older

The Alabama Department of Public Health (ADPH) encourages annual influenza vaccination of all persons 6 months of age and older as the best way to prevent influenza and its potentially serious complications.

Among its many benefits are reducing the risk of flu illness, doctors' visits, hospitalization and even death.

For the upcoming 2018-2019 influenza season, there is updated flu vaccine and many vaccine options, including nasal spray vaccine. Flu circulates year round and peak activity usually occurs between December and February, but could start earlier or extend later.

In the 2017-2018 flu season, there was widespread activity for three months,

As of October 27, 2018, a total of 185 pediatric deaths for the 2017-2018 season have been reported to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention with approximately 80 percent of these deaths occurring in children who did not receive a flu shot for the season.

Precautions are as follows:

- Try to avoid close contact with sick people.

- While sick, limit contact with others as much as possible to keep from infecting them.

Wallace-Dothan medical coding program named state's top

Wallace Community College-Dothan's Medical Coding Program is the top program of its kind in Alabama, according to Medical Billing Coding World.

The publication recently reviewed Medical Coding programs nationwide based their finding on accreditation, affordability, and course offerings. The course is one of several Fast-Track Career programs offered by Wallace.

"Receiving this award is truly an honor," said Joe Johnson, Workforce Development Division Director. "Providing quality training is our guiding principle. Assisting students to be successful in their chosen career field not only helps them but provides qualified candidates for area businesses."

A medical coder is responsible for reviewing medical records while identifying and translating medical procedures into proper diagnostic codes. Students in WCC's program learn to code with high accuracy for correct communication with insurance companies.

WCCD requires completion of a course in medical terminology and anatomy to gain entrance into the program. According to Medical Billing, this prerequisite adequately prepares students for the material.

Instructor Brenda Monday said that Medical Coding is a profession that appeals to students of all ages and backgrounds.

"We have a lot of students who are working in a medical setting such as a physician's office, billing company, or hospital," she said. "They are looking to improve their skills as a means of advancement or transitioning towards a new career path in the event of shifts in employment."

Learning the terminology and skills is worth the 40-week commitment, according to Monday.

"This course requires a lot of independent study. Commitment is the key to success, but this course will make the students' current skills more marketable," she said. "I think this is a career that will continue to grow as physicians see the difference in accuracy and increase in reimbursements from correctly-coded claims."

The program, which meets at SouthEast Health on Tuesday evenings, boasts a work-friendly schedule that accommodates working students. The next class begins Jan. 15. The course costs $1,680 and is approved for WIOA funding.

Students who successfully complete the program take the Certified Professional Coders (CPC) national exam administered by AACP (American Academy of Professional Coders).

Thanksgiving, America's Oldest Holiday

"The oldest American holiday is Thanksgiving and the celebration has changed little over the years in purpose and manner of observance." These observations were given by Ralph and Adelin Linton in their book, We Gather Together, The Story of Thanksgiving. They say that the Pilgrims might not recognize the modern expressions of Christmas or Easter, but Thanksgiving is much the same as it was in its first American celebration.

History records the checkered experience of the colonists. They arrived in the New World anxious to exercise their religious freedom (Some were not numbered among the saints).

The group was ill-prepared to sustain themselves in their new wilderness home. Most of them were trained in some sort of city-type trade. They had neither the experience nor the tools to do well in the New World. They still believed God in His providence was caring for them.

They settled in an area which had been desolated because an epidemic claimed the lives of all the tribesmen except one named Squanto, who had been to Europe with white men. Squanto befriended the Pilgrims and became a great help to the immigrants by teaching them Indian methods of farming and hunting. He also bridged the language gap between the settlers and the Indians.

The Indians and Pilgrims made a peace treaty which was very successful. A good harvest after their first planting under Squanto's direction topped off a list of reasons to offer Thanksgiving to God.

They celebrated in spite of the loss of half their number during their first winter in New England. They had a feast, invited friends, and offered God thanks.

This procedure is always in vogue. Psalm 103:1 instructs us to "Bless the Lord, and forget not all His benefits." It is a good thing to give thanks to the Lord! The years might bring much change, but men and women of faith recognize the gracious hand of God in the affairs of life.

 Love Your Enemies

Jesus said, "Love your enemies" [Matthew 5:44]. Long before He said it, David was demonstrating what it means. The word love is used so loosely today that we hardly know what it means when we hear it, for there are many kinds of love.

Jesus was talking about the most unselfish kind of love — the kind called agape. It is a love that is seen in the life as well as felt in the heart. Jesus explained it thus: "Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you" [Matthew 5:44].

How do you feel toward those who mistreat you, slander you, insult you, abuse you? If you examine your heart and find no love for them, then fill your life with loving deeds. Do good to them at every opportunity you see, and make some opportunities that you do not yet see. If you do this earnestly and conscientiously, you will be surprised by the love that begins growing in your heart.

Question / Answer Section

Q/A for the Week of 11/22/18

Q: Does the genealogy of Jesus have an encouraging word for women?

A: Yes! In addition to Mary, four women are listed in Jesus' genealogy. [read Matthew 1]

Thought to Remember

Our mission is to love like Jesus

Question for the Week of 11/29/18

Q: Other than the fact that God hears the cry of His suffering people, what lesson is there for us from the statement in Exodus 3:7?

Today is a good day! Be grateful.

Zion Chapel Rebel News

FACULTY SPOTLIGHT

by Savannah Parker

A teacher has many jobs - they educate, they motivate, but most importantly, they inspire. A similar sentiment was noted by a new member of the Zion Chapel family, Mrs. Stacy Waldrop.

Mrs. Waldrop noted that her inspiration to teach stemmed from a mentor in her early life, her fourth grade teacher, Mrs. Patrick.

Mrs. Waldrop is commencing her eighth year of teaching by returning to Zion Chapel, her 2007 Alma Mater. She is a 2011 Troy University graduate with a Bachelor's degree in elementary education. She also received a degree in English as a Second Language from the University of Alabama Birmingham in 2014.

She and her husband, Jared, have two daughters, Eden and Tenley.

In Waldrop's eyes, "Zion Chapel is home - it is a wonderful close knit community."

Career Technical Classes:

Learning skills for the future

Submitted by
Chloe Meadows

Zion Chapel is proud to offer career technical classes to its students through the Elba Career Academy.

These classes include nursing and welding, and Zion Chapel currently has students in the 11th and 12th grades enrolled in nursing.

Most of the nursing students plan to attend college after graduation. These classes, along with AP and Dual Enrollment, are provided to help juniors and seniors get ready for college and/or the workforce.

Nursing provides a way for many to show their skills outside of the classroom and provides a pathway to a career in the medical field. After finishing these classes, students can choose to go directly into the workforce as a CNA (Certified Nursing Assistant) if they pass the exam, or continue their nursing career in college.

For juniors, the first semester consists of online learning, the second semester is used to perform those skills, or "show what you know."

Junior, Haley Parrish, says her favorite part of the class is "learning the skills to help people."

For seniors, the first semester also consists of learning skills and the second focuses on showing/performing skills.

Senior, Shyanne Allen, says she enjoys being able to show her knowledge "hands on."

Both Parrish and Allen plan on attending college and continuing their medical education. Several students that have participated in these classes before graduation have continued in postsecondary education in order to serve others through the medical profession. Offering these programs is one part of serving all students on their paths to college and career readiness.

ZC students attend National Council on Civics annual conference

Submitted by:
Kim Braisted

As members of the A+ Student Voice Team for Alabama, four Zion Chapel students were invited to the National Council on Civics Annual Conference in Washington DC.

Nate Braisted, Brianna Davis, Chloe Meadows, and Skyler Nalley all attended and spoke with a panel of young adults to discuss their efforts and plans for the future of Alabama teens.

They heard from speakers and civic organizations from around the country who are affecting change in their communities like Community Renewal International, I Civics, Inspire US, National Conversation Project, Represent US, The American Promise and many more. Several authors who have written works on democratic topics spoke at the NCOC, like Mike Gurzon author of The Reunited States of America. The A+ Student Voice team was inspired by the efforts of these groups and hopes to narrow their focus on what they plan to accomplish on the state level in Alabama. The students also had opportunities to tour the nation's capital, including a Ghost Tour in Lafayette Park by the White House, the NEWSEUM, the Lincoln and Vietnam Memorials, and the historic US Capitol Building arranged by Martha Roby's office.

"It was amazing, very inspiring, and I learned a lot!" said Nate Braisted.

The students thank Jill West at A+ Education Partnership who serves as the Alabama A+ Student Voice Team facilitator and organized the trip. They also express sincere appreciation to businesses and groups like National Security, the American Legion Post #145, Troy Cable, and South Alabama Electric Cooperative, as well as a number of individual community members who contributed financially toward this unique opportunity.

Chloe's Corner:

Should the government lower the voting age to 16?

by Chloe Meadows

The idea of lowering the voting age to 16 years old has been a popular topic across the country during this election season.

While at the National Conference on Citizenship, our Zion Chapel students spoke with and gave a presentation with teenagers from Washington, D.C. who are pushing to address this very subject. The group is called Vote16 D.C., but there are several cities across the nation pursuing this endeavor.

According to our Constitution, a person must be at least 18 years of age to vote for any governmental office. This includes the Presidential election, Senate elections, House of Representatives elections, and a few more.

It has been established that most of the youth in America do not feel as though their elected officials hear their voices. It has been proposed that lowering the voting age could possibly solve this problem.

Still, there are many who disapprove of this cause.

Some say that 16 year olds are not mature enough to make important decisions, such as voting for a person that will make important decisions for our country and state. Others say that immature 16 year olds would not bother to go through the hassle of registering to vote or actually committing the act of voting.

Do you think the voting age should be lowered to 16 in Alabama? Go online and type in this URL to vote: <<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/C6MXSV6>>.

The Lodge at Gulf State Park opens with great fanfare

By DAVID RAINER
Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources

The fanfare that accompanied the ribbon-cutting ceremony to officially open The Lodge at Gulf State Park, a Hilton Hotel, was unprecedented.

With Governor Kay Ivey headlining a long list of dignitaries at the grand opening of the long-awaited facility, the Gulf Shores High School marching band played the National Anthem as Gulf Shores Navy JROTC cadets presented the colors in front of the large crowd that gathered only steps from the white-sand beaches of the Gulf of Mexico.

Chris Blankenship, Commissioner of the Division of Parks and Recreation, introduced new heavy haul division and names new sales leader

Alabama Department of Conservation and Natural Resources, said the decision was made to forego the typical soft opening that new facilities hold before a general opening.

The Lodge will accommodate up to 1,000 people for conferences and conventions with a 350-room hotel that includes 20 suites. The beach-view ballroom is 12,160 square feet with an adjacent 7,500-square-foot outdoor terrace. Several other smaller meeting and conference rooms are available. A Gulf-front infinity pool will have a pool bar and grill. Meanwhile, a Gulf-front restaurant features terrace seating and a private dining room that will serve house-prepared dishes sourced from regional suppliers.

including fresh Alabama Gulf Seafood.

"Our best days are ahead of us in Alabama, and this great facility is symbolic of that."

Governor Ivey echoed the sentiment that the opening of The Lodge has been a study in perseverance.

"I'm thrilled to be here to have this grand opening that we've been waiting a long time to have," said Governor Ivey. "There's just no more beautiful place than Alabama's Gulf Coast with the white sand and sparkling waters. That's why I made it my mission to protect this part of the state and grow it."

"And here we are today. I am proud to be with you for the ribbon-cutting for The Lodge at Gulf State Park."

"Gulf State Park will be a world-class place to visit, and it will be the crown jewel of tourism," said Governor Ivey.

Girl Scouts of Southern Alabama (GSSA) hosted its grand re-opening of Camp Humming Hills in Elba during the 2018 Adventure Blast Event held earlier this month. The camp now features a brand new zip line and archery range. Above, a ribbon was cut by participating girl scouts to commemorate the grand re-opening.

Hundreds of local Girl Scouts came and zipped, shot, and hiked their way through the beautiful Camp Humming Hills during the grand re-opening event. A few girls even camped out the night before on site and learned how to build a campfire and make homemade ice cream using tin cans. Above, a girl scout enjoys her first trip across the new zip line. This is expected to be a huge hit with the girl scouts that visit the camp.

Elba Pre-K lends a helping hand across the state line to Georgia

At Elba Elementary School, the Elba Learning Center's lead teacher Angela Newby and auxiliary teacher Sara Mitchell are teaching the valuable lesson of kindness and good citizenship to their students.

The Elba Pre-K class collected supplies to benefit the victims of Hurricane Michael in Georgia. They collected backpacks, first aid supplies, Clorox wipes, hand soap, underwear, clothes, socks, and school supplies.

The supplies helped to benefit Mrs. Duke's Pre-K classroom at Seminole County Elementary School. These supplies were delivered by Ms. Newby along with words and pictures of encouragement from Elba's Pre-K students.

The two classrooms exchanged addresses and vowed to keep in touch throughout the remainder of the school year.

Special thanks to Lucia Grantham for spearheading this project.

The two classes plan to stay in contact for the remainder of this school year.

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama warning of robocall scam

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama is warning their customers and Alabamians about a nationwide robocall scam. These calls falsely claim to be made by "Blue Cross Blue Shield". They appear to be made for the purpose of marketing insurance products by using the Blue Cross and Blue Shield brands and coincide with enrollment periods for Medicare and the Federal Employee Program.

The robocallers' identity is masked by "spoofing" technology making it extremely difficult to identify the source and take action to stop the calls. Additionally, this technology allows for the same calls to appear to come from different phone numbers, which prevents consumers from effectively blocking them.

These robocalls are not originating from Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Alabama, and we are taking every step available to minimize public confusion. We encourage consumers to be vigilant, protect their personal information, and guard against providing personal information during calls that claim to be from Blue Cross.

The LBW Community College Foundation recently established the Ballard and Lynn Krudop Scholarship, thanks to a generous donation of funds for a full endowment. Our grandson Lawson pulled out a Christmas catalog last week and circled several items that he wanted to make sure Santa knew about. I assured him Santa was already keeping an eye on him and knew exactly what he wanted, but did tear the page out of the catalog and put it in a safe place.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers saw their season come to an end last week with a tough 28-0 loss to Linden. The Tigers never got anything going on offense and had only 44 yards in total offense and moved the chains only three times as they suffered a rare shutout, while over on defense the Tigers battled for all four quarters and kept the score close enough for a possible late rally. The loss was a disappointment for the Tigers and their fans, but last Friday night the best team won and the Tigers now know where they need to improve before they kick it off again next season.

 The second round of the state football playoffs did include a couple of surprises, as in 7A, where Robert E. Lee shocked Auburn 12-6; in 6A, where Opelika outscored Bessemer City 42-26; in 5A, where Central Clay County pounded Madison Academy 44-19; in 4A, where Andalusia hammered Headland 51-22; in 3A, where Pike County upset Thomasville 21-14; in 2A, where Leroy had to score late to sneak past Daleville 27-26; and in 1A, where Lanett struggled to get past Marengo 14-6. Some games that went as planned included (5A) Greenville rolling past Bibb County 43-16, (4A) UMS-Wright spanking Trinity 48-7, (3A) Providence Christian defeating St. James 27-6, (2A) Luverne outscoring Abbeville 41-20, and (1A) St. Luke's clobbering Wadley 46-16.

 All three college favorites won over the weekend with Alabama waking up in the second half to get past the Citadel 50-17, Auburn making easy work of Liberty 53-0 and Troy struggling to claim a 12-7 win over Texas State. The Crimson Tide forgot to leave a wake up call at the hotel and didn't shake the cobwebs out until the second half after one of its worst halves in years. The Tigers didn't play their best, but didn't have to in their easy win, and the Trojans failed to score a touchdown in their ugly conference win. Oh well, all three posted wins.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator wasn't smiling when he dropped by the office over the weekend and shouted 'Bah Humbug' when asked for a comment about last weekend's Elba and Alabama football games. The fact the local guesspert hit only 18 of his 26 picks last week didn't help any, but the playoff picks did leave his season totals at 314-75, and that ain't too shabby. Here is this week's fearless forecast....

The Rebels Jeremiah Deal sparked an early Rebel rally in the third quarter and scored seven straight Zion Chapel points to keep hopes of a comeback alive. Two quick baskets by Aaron Senn enabled the Rebels to cut the lead to 43-27 with 7:34 remaining in the fourth quarter, but the Tigers never lost command and closed the game on a 14-5 run to cap the big 60-34 win.

'Long' night for Rebels

The Zion Chapel Rebels fell behind 10-0 early and never recovered in a wild 82-56 home court loss to the G.W. Long Rebels.

Zion Chapel's Skyler Nalley scored three straight points midway through the opening stanza to get the Rebels on the scoreboard, but G.W. Long was already on top 10-0 at the time and opened up a 16-5 lead late in the quarter before two long 3-pointers by Matt Richburg helped the Rebels pull within 16-11.

The Rebels kept it close early in the second quarter and trailed only 20-13 with 6:34 left after a basket by Nalley, but the Rebels hit only 1 of their next 7 free throw chances and watched as Long stretched its lead to 36-21 by the end of the half.

G.W. Long opened up a 50-25 lead midway through the third quarter and appeared ready to blow the Rebels out of their own gym, but Zion Chapel answered behind the play of Christian Turner and Jeremiah Deal and went on a 10-0 run to pull within 54-40 with 6:42 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Long responded with an 8-0 run to regain command at 62-40, and while Zion Chapel never backed down, the Rebels never managed to make a run and dropped the 82-56 decision.

Matt Richburg and Skyler Nalley both scored 10 points to lead Zion Chapel, while Kamryn Faria scored 23 points to lead G.W. Long.

Zion Chapel rallied and pulled within 23-15 at the half. However, G.W. Long drained six 3-pointers in the fourth quarter and closed the game on a 28-5 run to claim the big 57-25 win.

The Elba Tigers saw their season come to an abrupt end Friday night when they lost to the Linden Patriots 28-0, in Linden, in the second round of the 1A football playoffs. Elba went backwards on its initial possession of the night and lost a total of 19 yards on three plays, but Linden was ready to roll and after a Tiger punt went 43 yards in just five plays to grab an early lead.

A 23-yard pass from Graderius Brown to Kevin Green on the first play of the possession got the Patriots off to a fast start, and four plays later they were on the scoreboard after a 7-yard blast up the middle by Douglas Johnson. Jaevius Smith kicked the extra-point, and with 7:32 left in the first quarter Linden was already on top 7-0.

Elba's Richmon Singletary broke loose for an apparent 62-yard touchdown run on the first play on Elba's ensuing possession, but a penalty flag nullified the long run, and four plays later the Tigers gave the ball back on a fumble near midfield.

Linden put the ball in play at the Elba 44-yardline late in the opening quarter after a Tiger punt and covered the distance to the endzone in four plays to extend its lead. A roughing the passer penalty against Elba on third down and seven pumped new life into the scoring drive, and on the next play Brown connected with Green from 26 yards out for a Patriot touchdown. Smith added the extra-point as Linden's lead grew to 14-0 with 11:11 left in the second quarter.

Elba's offense showed signs of life on its ensuing series and behind the hard running of Richmon Singletary moved to a first down at the Linden 47-yardline. An apparent pass completion for a first down was wiped out by another penalty flag that resulted in a 20-yard loss; however, and three plays later the Tigers were forced to punt the ball away.

Elba threatened again late in the half and reached the Linden 35-yardline after an 18-yard pass completion from Byron Johnson to Singletary, but three incomplete passes and a run for negative yardage killed the threat, and at half-time Linden went in with a 14-0 lead.

The Tigers reached a first down at the Linden 33-yardline on their initial possession of the third quarter after a 17-yard dash by Byron Johnson, but lost a fumble on the next play as another scoring opportunity went by the board.

Linden failed to mount a drive on its initial two possessions of the second half, but on its third possession went 50 yards in nine plays to increase its lead. Graderius Brown rushed for 32 yards on four carries and scored the touchdown on a 1-yard run up the middle, and while the extra-point failed, the Patriots were now on top 20-0 with 23-seconds remaining in the quarter.

Linden began its next offensive series at the Elba 30-yardline after an incomplete pass on fourth down, and covered the distance in five plays to get right back into the endzone. Graderius Brown scored the Patriot touchdown on a 19-yard run around the left end, and Douglas Johnson ran in the two-point conversion as Linden went up 28-0 with 9:14 left in the fourth quarter and put the finishing touches on the big homefield win over the Tigers.

Richmon Singletary rushed for 29 yards on 14 carries and pulled in one pass for 18 yards to lead the Elba offense, while Graderius Brown rushed for 72 yards and 2 touchdowns on 12 carries and completed 5 of 9 passes for 103 yards and one td to spark Linden.
